The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 24, to Saturday May 28, 1763.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

For Pardoning and Discharging Soldiers now in Custody for Desertion.

GEORGE R.

WHereas divers Soldiers, duly enlisted, or in Pay as Soldiers, in certain Regiments and Military Corps, which have been since disbanded or disembodied, and in other Regiments or Corps now subsisting, have deserted Our Service, and thereby incurred the Penalties respectively inflicted for such Offence, by several Acts of Parliament passed for punishing Mutiny and Desertion: And whereas many of the said Deserters have been apprehended at various Times, and committed for safe Custody to the several Goals or Prisons belonging to the Counties, Towns, or Places, where such Deserters have been found or apprehended, to the End that they might be proceeded against according to Law; the Names of which Deserters have been, from Time to Time, transmitted to our Secretary at War for the Time being, pursuant to the Provisions of such Acts of Parliament made for Punishing Mutiny and Desertion as aforesaid: And whereas We are graciously disposed to extend Our Royal Mercy to the said Offenders, who may be hereafter useful to their Country in following their honest and lawful Occupations, in Case they are enabled thereto, by receiving Our free Pardon; and being discharged out of Custody in Consequence thereof; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, pardon and remit all and every such Offence and Offences of Desertion, from any such Regiments or Military Corps, committed by any Person or Persons now in Custody as aforesaid: And We do also release and discharge the said Offenders from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments, and Penalties, commenced or incurred, for, or by reason of any such Offence or Offences: And We do hereby, by and with the Advice of Our said Privy-Council, declare Our farther Pleasure, and do will and require all and every Goaler and Goalers, Keeper and Keepers of any Goal, House of Correction, or Prison, where any such Deserter or Deserters is or are in Custody, to discharge him or them forthwith, without Fee or Reward, upon receiving a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of Our Secretary at War for the Time being, that the Name or Names of such Deserter or Deserters, do appear to him to have been transmitted to the War Office, pursuant to the Provisions of any of the said Acts. And We hereby further Charge and Command every such Goaler or Keeper, within the Space of Seven Days after receiving any such Certificate as aforesaid, to make a Return to Our Secretary at War for the Time being, of what such Goaler or Keeper shall have done in Pursuance of such Certificate, and of this Our Royal Proclamation.—Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to discharge any Person or Persons so in Custody for any such Offence of Desertion, from any Crime, Cause, or Matter, for which he or they shall have been lawfully committed, or detained in the Custody of any such Goaler or Keeper, other than such Offence or Offences of Desertion.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 20th Day of May, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, May 28.

The following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Glouceſter, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Dr. Gally, Senior Prebendary, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Glouceſter, after having offered up our grateful Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving to the great Author of all human Blessings, as your own Piety directed, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with our humble Gratulations on the Success of your Majesty's humane and princely Labours in procuring Peace for Europe, when you had effectually vindicated the Insults on your Imperial Crown, by a large Accession to the British Empire of ample and fruitful Dominions, solemnly yielded up to your victorious Arms by the Powers offending.

To see so desirable an End put to the Desolations of War and Bloodshed (that Opprobrium of Christian Profession) cannot but fill the Hearts of us, the Messengers and Ministers of Peace, with the warmest Gratitude towards your Royal Person for this inestimable Blessing.

While the other Part of your Majesty's happy and loyal Subjects are employed in generous and patriotic Plans for improving and enobling these vast Acquisitions by Civil Arts, Agriculture, and Commerce; we, the Servants of Religion, please ourselves in the sublimer Views of extending the Kingdom of Christ through boundless Regions of unknown, and unnamed Barbarians; Regions, which the everlasting Gospel, in its Truth and Purity, never yet enlightened.

And under the Auspices of a Monarch, the Friend of

of Mankind, as well as the Father of his People, we may fairly promiſe to ourſelves Succeſs in both theſe glorious Undertakings, which have ſo ſtrict a Dependance on one another, that neither can be well conducted ſeparately and alone.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Northumberland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Acknowledgments for your watchful and paternal Care, in having put a Period to a War, which is the Admiration of the preſent Age, by a Peace, which as it confirms our valuable Acquiſitions, and extricates us from ſo heavy a Burthen, will demand the Gratitude of Poſterity.

We greatly admire your Majeſty's Wiſdom, which has been ſo eminently diſplayed by ſo many illuſtrious Succeſſes, which have elevated theſe Kingdoms to the greateſt Height of Glory; have opened inexhauſtible Sources of Riches; and compelled an univerſal Acknowledgment of your glorious Superiority. Your Majeſty has obtained the Object of the War, and compelled France to ſurrender their valuable and favourite Poſſeſſions on the Continent of America. Your Majeſty has limited to narrow Bounds the Fiſhery of our Enemies, whilſt ours is increaſed and uncircumſcribed. Your Majeſty has enlarged our Poſſeſſions in the Weſt Indies, and greatly widened our Dominions in the Eaſt. Your Majeſty has acquired for us the Gum-Coaſt in Africa; and in Europe, among many other illuſtrious Acts, your Majeſty has extended your irreſiſtable Protection to the Redemption of a Royal Ally, whoſe Noble Struggle in the Cauſe of Liberty, muſt have proved too feeble for his Support. Your Majeſty has, by a rapid and vigorous Exertion of your Arms, compelled Spain to make a ſubmiſſive Atonement for a haughty and unprovoked Attack. We are amazed when we reflect, that the Admiration, which your Majeſty's Fame has excited throughout Europe, Aſia, Africa, and America, can only be equalled, by the Envy which our Acquiſitions have raiſed. We beg Leave to make our warmeſt Acknowledgment to your Majeſty, for having been graciouſly pleaſed to recommend to us, Œconomy and Unanimity, which to the utmoſt of our Power we will practiſe and promote. May your Majeſty be very long preſerved to enjoy and communicate the Effects of your conſummate Wiſdom and Goodneſs; and to receive the dutiful Acknowledgments, which are ſo juſtly due, to the beſt of Kings, from the moſt grateful Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Twelvemen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Great Grimsby, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Catherlough, their Recorder, and one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Twelvemen, and Free Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Great Grimsby.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Twelvemen, and Free Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Great Grimsby, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Concluſion of a long and moſt expenſive, though glorious and ſucceſsful War.

The Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace is an Event intereſting to all your Majeſty's Subjects; and the important Acquiſitions obtained by the irreſiſtable Bravery of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, now ceded to Great Britain by the Definitive Treaty of Peace, will be a laſting Monument of your Majeſty's glorious Reign, as thereby the Trade and Navigation of your Majeſty's Commercial Subjects will be greatly extended.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to unite in the Wiſh of all your loyal Subjects, that by a Peace ſo happily eſtabliſhed, and the great Advantages ſtipulated thereby, Unanimity and Concord, ſo eſſential to our Happineſs, may with equal Care and Anxiety be propagated throughout the Kingdom; and to aſſure your Majeſty, the utmoſt Attention of this ancient and loyal Borough ſhall be given to promote and attain this neceſſary Royal Recommendation from the Throne.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, this Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſtings, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable James Brudenell, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Haſtings in the County of Suſſex.

WE your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of your Town and Port of Haſtings, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Concluſion of a War the moſt extenſive that Hiſtory affords Example of, yet glorious as extended; procuring Safety to your Allies, Weight and Luſtre to your own Crown, and Happineſs to your People.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of all the various Nations over whom Providence has placed you, rich in domeſtic Bleſſings, and reaping all the Fruits that may be juſtly expected from a Peace dictated by your Humanity, is the daily and earneſt Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's faithful and devoted Subjects,

The Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of Haſtings.

Given under our Common Seal, at Haſtings aforeſaid, this 20th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Staunton, Eſq; and the Right Hon.

Hon the Lord Orwell their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with ſincere Congratulations on the Concluſion of a Glorious and Succeſsful War, by a Salutary and Honourable Peace, which has relieved your faithful People from the certain and diſtreſsful Burdens which muſt have been occaſioned, and the uncertain bad Events which might have followed from too preſumptuous a Continuance of ſo dangerous a Contention.

As the good Providence of Heaven has bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms and Councils with ſuch ſignal Succeſs, our moſt devout Wiſhes are, that your Majeſty and your Kingdoms may reap the happy Fruits of it throughout the Britiſh Empire, at this Time ſo greatly extended and ſo firmly ſecured: And as your Majeſty's generous Care of the Conſtitution of this Country has, from your firſt Acceſſion to the Crown, been moſt eminently conſpicuous in the many eſſential Securities eſtabliſhed for the Preſervation of the Liberties of the Publick, we cannot omit this Opportunity of expreſſing our grateful Senſe of theſe Bleſſings, and of teſtifying our Abhorrence of the factious Practices which have of late occaſioned ſome Diſturbance, and which, under the Maſk of Liberty, would effectually deſtroy it, even at a Time when we have all imaginable Reaſon to expect and truſt in its complete Eſtabliſhment under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-fourth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord Perceval, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of Bridgwater, humbly approach your Majeſty with ſincere Congratulations upon the Happy and Glorious Termination of the late moſt conſuming, though Juſt and Succeſsful War.

We are ſenſible that great and many Difficulties attended your Majeſty's Councils in accompliſhing this important Work. While on one Hand, the Fortune and Valour of your Forces led to unbounded Expectations; on the other, the Loſs of Men in your Fleets and Armies, the Burthen of new Taxes, the vaſt Increaſe of National Debt, the decreaſing Value of the Publick Funds, the Diſtreſs of private Credit, the Demands of ſome, and the Dangers impending over others of our Confederate Powers, loudly pleaded for the ſpeedy Concluſion of an Honourable Peace.

Reflections, founded thus in Truth and Reaſon, induce us to admire the Wiſdom, Firmneſs, and Temper of your Majeſty, in this great Criſis of Affairs. By theſe Qualities and Virtues you have retained and ſecured an Addition of Empire immenſe both in Extent and Value; with Preciſion as to Limits; with Extinction of all injurious Claims; with Attention, at the ſame Time, to publick Faith, and the juſt Intereſts of your Allies, unequalled in the Story of this or any other Nation.

In Circumſtances ſuch as theſe, which intitle your Majeſty to the warmeſt Returns of Gratitude and general Joy, we have ſeen with Deteſtation, diſingenuous and alarming Attempts to pervert the Senſe and Duty of your People. The fatal Tendency of theſe Proceedings particularly calls for publick Teſtimony of Zeal and Reſolution, in your faithful Subjects, at the preſent Conjuncture. We therefore preſume to aſſure your Majeſty, that no Arts of deſigning Men will ever prevail to impair our Affection for your Sacred Perſon and Government; or divert us from a firm Determination to maintain, as far as it may lie within our Power, the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, the true Principles, and the full Authority of our happy Conſtitution, ſo wiſely eſtabliſhed, and ſo long perfectly enjoyed, under the Princes of your Illuſtrious Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Steward, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Whitſhed, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Steward, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's very dutiful Subjects, the Steward, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Cirenceſter, full of Reverence for your Royal Dignity, of Reſpect for your Virtues, and of Gratitude for the Benefits of your Reign, humbly beg Leave to preſent you their Congratulations on the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace. The Termination of a glorious, but ſanguinary and burdenſome War, by a Treaty both equitable and advantageous, is the moſt likely to be laſting; does equal Honour to your Majeſty's Moderation and Wiſdom, and is highly pleaſing to Benevolence, which always grieves at the Effuſion of human Blood.

We exult at the Proſpect, that Piety and good Morals, with the liberal and uſeful Arts, encouraged before by your auſpicious Influence, will now, under the Shade of the Olive, be carried nearer to Perfection. In the mean while we cannot help lamenting thoſe Efforts which are made, to revive and keep up political Factions, the Bane of public Good: We deteſt, from the Bottom of our Hearts, thoſe daring Inſults, which have been offered by ſeditious and profligate Writers to the beſt of Kings. Liberty we value more than our Lives. Liberty will be ever maintained and cheriſhed by a Sovereign, who hath approved himſelf the true Father of his Country. But Licentiouſneſs, the vile and miſchievous Ape of Liberty, deſerves Reprehenſion from every Mouth that is able to pronounce it; and Correction, within the Boundaries of Law, from every Hand that is able to beſtow it.

We, for our own Parts, far from imitating ſuch execrable Outrage, ſhall always give your Majeſty every Mark of Duty and Reſpect; making it our fer-

fervent Prayer, that you may find the Weight of a Crown as eaſy as poſſible; may long reign over a proſperous, united and loyal People; and be attended with every Bleſſing.

Moſcow, April 25. The Baron de Breteuil, Miniſter from France, has received his Letters of Recall, and propoſes to leave Moſcow in about ten Days.

Liſbon, May 9. By an Advice-Boat, which arrived the 28th paſt, in three Months, from the Rio de Janeiro, the Court has received an Account of the Death of Gomes Freire de Andrade Count de Bobadella, Governor of that Place; an Officer in great Eſteem with his moſt Faithful Majeſty.

The Lord Clive Privateer, and his two Conſorts, had put into the Rio de Janeiro, and had proceeded from thence, in Company with the Portugueſe Succours, for the River of Plate.

Their moſt Faithful Majeſties returned from Pancas on Thurſday the 28th paſt, in perfect Health.

Captain Fielding, in His Britannick Majeſty's Ship Unicorn, who convoyed the Tranſports to Gibraltar, is returned hither, in his Way to England. He got to that Place from hence, in two Days and a half, and left the Troops there, which are to proceed to Port Mahon.

Stockholm, May 10. The Ceremony of Placing the Corpſe of the late King Frederick in the Mauſoleum, built for that Purpoſe in the Ritterholm Church, where the Remains of Charles the XIIth and of the late Queen are depoſited, has been performed by the Senators of this Kingdom.

Venice, May 13. We underſtand that the Publick Entry of the Earl of Northampton, Ambaſſador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain, is intended to take Place on Sunday the 29th Inſtant.

Florence, May 14. Four Couriers have paſſed through this Place, in the laſt Week, from Liege to Rome, and Yeſterday one returned; but their Diſpatches are ſuppoſed to relate to the late Election of a Biſhop of Liege, Notifications thereof having been made to the Pope, on the Part both of Prince Clement of Saxony, and of Count D'Oultemont.

Hague, May 24. The King of Pruſſia is ſoon expected to viſit his Dominions on this Side, though it is aſſured, in ſome Accounts, that his Majeſty will firſt make a Tour into Pomerania.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia has diſcharged General Tottleben from his Arreſt, and given him his Life. Her Imperial Majeſty has alſo been pleaſed to take off the Sequeſtration, which had been laid upon his Effects at Dantzig and Hamburg. But he is to be conducted to the Frontier of the Empire, as a Criminal, with a Prohibition, on Pain of Death, of ever returning into Ruſſia.

JACKSON's TINCTURE,

By the KING's Royal Patent.

THE univerſal Reputation my Tincture has ſo juſtly acquired, and the happy Succeſs that has ſo many Years attended it, proves it, beyond Contradiction, to be a moſt efficacious and ſafe Family Medicine in the following Diſorders, viz. Rheumatiſm, Gravel, Stone, Cholic, Wind, and griping of the Bowels, Conſumption, Coughs, Aſthmas, and all Diſorders of the Lungs, Spitting Blood, and in the Piles; and is infallible in Diſorders of the Fair Sex either young or old, (it is far ſuperior to any Medicine extant;) Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruiſes or Swellings of any Sort, eſpecially White-ſwellings, it cures to Admiration, and affords preſent Relief in Bruiſes, Strains, Cramps, Numbneſs, and all Manner of paralitic Diſorders; old Ulcers or Humours, though of ever ſo long ſtanding, it preſently overcomes by an inward Application. No ſooner is the Reputation of a Medicine eſtabliſhed, but numberleſs are its Imitators, to detect which, my genuine Tincture hath on the Top of the Bottles my Coat of Arms, and on the Directions the Names of JACKSON and SON, Price One Shilling the Bottle, ſold only at my Elaboratory and Medicinal Warehouſe in Fleet Market, London.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Meaſles, Pleuriſies, Quinſies, acute Rheumatiſms, Colds, and all inflammatory Diſorders, as well as for thoſe which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hyſteric, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Paper; with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a ſafe and certain Cure for the above Diſorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as uſual in Marble Paper, the Commiſſioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be ſo preſerved for the Uſe of all His Majeſty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is alſo made up in the ſame Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for thoſe who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is ſold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by thoſe who are empowered by him to ſell it in the ſeveral Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Diſorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the ſame Materials as the other Powder, but ſo contrived as to have little or no ſenſible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumſtances, Infants, and thoſe whoſe Conſtitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2 s. 6 d.

To all Traders, Artificers, Mariners, and Ship Carpenters, whether Natives of Great Britain and Ireland, or Foreigners.

WHereas the Port of Stornoway, in the Iſland of Lewes, on the North Weſt Coaſt of Scotland, is moſt commodiouſly ſituated for Trade to all Parts of America, as well as to all the Ports in Europe, particularly to the Northern and Eaſtern Countries.

This Port and Harbour is well known to be one of the beſt in Europe, where Ships, of any Burden, may anchor with the greateſt Safety, at all Seaſons.

There is a Fiſhery of all Kinds round the Iſland; particularly Cod, Ling, Herring, and Turbot; ſo that the Fiſhery, in its different Branches, may be carried on there at all Seaſons in the Year.

The Iſland abounds with great Plenty of Proviſions, Beef, Mutton, Poultry, and Garden Stuff, beſides Veniſon and Wild Fowl in the Seaſon; and Ships may be ſupplied at very moderate Rates.

There is a Poſt Office, and a regular Packet weekly to and from the main Land, Diſtance fifteen Leagues.

There is a Cuſtom Houſe eſtabliſhed for the Convenience of Trade and the Fiſhery, ſo that Ships may clear out and proceed directly upon their Voyages, according as their Cargoes are compleated, and may there depoſit their ſurplus Bond Salt, according to Act of Parliament.

There is an annual Allowance from the Publick for the Encouragement and Introduction of Manufacturers of Flax and Hemp into the Iſland; which is forthwith to be carried into Execution.

There is alſo an eſtabliſhed School for teaching the Languages, Writing, Book-keeping, and Mathematicks.

Theſe are therefore to give Notice,

That for the Encouragement of induſtrious and good People to ſettle there, the Proprietor of the ſaid Iſland is to grant, in Feu, a large Piece of Ground in the Town of Stornoway in the ſaid Iſland, in different Lots, by Charters and Conveyances, required by the Law of Scotland, for the Security of Builders and Adventurers; each Lot to conſiſt of 60 Yards by 15, ſufficient for a Dwelling-houſe, Garden, and Ware-houſes, to ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to ſettle and build there, for Payment of a ſmall yearly Acknowledgment, by way of Ground Rent or Feu Duty.

N. B. All Sailors and diſbanded Marines, who chooſe to ſettle in this Place, will be intitled to the ſame Bounty Money and Encouragement as is already advertiſed to be given to ſuch Sailors and others as ſhall ſettle upon the annexed Eſtates: And for their further Encouragement, the Proprietor will give them a Portion of Land, not exceeding three Acres, Rent free for ſeven Years, and afterwards at a Rent not exceeding five Shillings per Acre.

For further Particulars enquire at Mr. Colin Mackenzie in Change Alley, London; at Mr. Alexander Stevenſon, Writer, at Forreſt's Coffee houſe, Edinburgh; at John Mackenzie, Eſq; at Braan Caſtle, Roſs Shire; and at Mr. George Gillenders, Factor or Steward of the Lewes Iſland at Stornoway.
